

Dedication

TO CHILDREN, lost in a world of adult symbols which they cannot begin to fathom

and

TO TEACHERS, lost in a world of methods and materials they did not create and in which they no longer have faith.

No magic. No easy answers. But joy and growth and meaningful exhaustion, yes, a plenty!

Here's to that better way that evolves when we look at learning in their way.

Good luck in your teaching!

Mary Baratta-Lorton